DRY GOODS.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at E. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE,

FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:

"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3,310 coils against 25,-193 last year."

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this result to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULDN'T HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. O L-D-D REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX, UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT ABOUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE LAWYER, P——, AF——, EXCEPTED, IS THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN FAWN IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM. BUT GIVE THEM BURNS AND SHELLEY IN VOLUMES AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PARTY, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

GOV. VANCE.

No man in North Carolina is better known, or more highly appreciated by the worth and virtue of the State, than Zebulon B. Vance. The attacks of his enemies fall harmless at his feet. The scavengers, who cater for the readers of the rebel-Radical sheet in this city, the par excellence "Woman Insulter," spend their time and labor to no purpose in attempting to assail this noble son of the old North State. They are unworthy to loose his shoes. The attack upon him, in the last issue of that filthy sheet, while it would merit attention, if it came from a responsible source, finds its ample refutation in the fetid, feculent quarter from whence it emanates. Men steeped in iniquity and infidelity are sure to attempt to bedime others, whose lives are a standing rebuke to them. The article alluded to is characteristic, and is believed to emanate from the pen of a writer for that paper, who has been charged with having been indicted for an attempt at rape! And such men talk about "morals and our holy Christianity!"

LO! THE POOR NEGRO.

B. I. Howze, a Radical peregrinator in Chatham, stated, in discussion with M. Q. Waddell, Esq., a few days since, that, after the election, the Radicals would be in favor of colonizing the negro in some distant land.

It has been charged, and has not been denied, that the man who "writes himself Governor" expressed similar views to a Chatham delegation, who waited on him to remonstrate against the appointment of negro magistrates.

It was announced, by telegram, on yesterday, that a negro, by the name of Menard, had been nominated for Congress by the Radicals in one of the Districts of Louisiana. The same dispatch gives extracts from a Circular from Menard, in which he sets up the high claim, for his race, that they ought to be represented in all the Departments, of Government,—"even in the White House!" That portion of the dispatch the Radical "Woman Insulter" (sometimes called the Standard) SUPPRESSES.—Lo! the poor negro. Do they begin to see through their "friends?"

MR. PENDLETON.—The Radical papers, North, have published a letter, professedly written by Hon. Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, to a man in Texas, urging the people of Texas to vote in the Presidential election, and promising the support of the Northern Democracy. Mr. Pendleton denounces the letter as a forgery, never having heard of the man before he saw the published letter.

TAXATION! TAXATION!

Our people are perhaps more deeply interested in the subject of taxation than any other question in which they are directly concerned. Exorbitant taxes, raised for objects which have not the sanction or approval of the tax-payer, constitute, perhaps, the hardest money that any man pays. A man who consents to become the security of another, although at the time he never dreamed of paying, when the law demands it, will not demur, because it is a security debt. Tax laws, however, that bear unequally upon the people, and that impose burdens upon one class, for the benefit of another, are of all others most offensive.

The Radical Legislature, at its late session, determined to conceal from the eye of the people the ultimate objects of the party in regard to taxation. Instead of fixing the salaries and fees of State officers, except in a few cases, they left the fixing of them to the future, intending, of course, to put the highest possible sum for the salaried officers. So, also, in regard to public Schools and other things. It did not even attempt to arrange a tax-bill, but determined to leave it to the future, in order that the extravagance of the party in the State should not be added to the fearful bill of Radical extravagance in national affairs.

The people may, however, anticipate the most severe and crushing taxation. Our correspondent "Cato," on yesterday, gave them an inkling of the operation of the School tax. The amount arising from the head or capitation tax will do absolutely nothing towards establishing schools among blacks and whites.

Prior to the war, the number of white children drawn into our public schools very seldom exceeded 125,000. To keep up schools for three and six months in the year, for this number of children, required an annual appropriation from the Literary Board and the counties of nearly $400,000. To these must be added say 70,000 negro children. This number would require an outlay of $600,000. Of this sum $550,000 must come out of the whites of the State,—not to educate their own children, for many of them would never go, but to educate the 70,000 negro children of the State. Can our people bear it? IMPOSSIBLE.

Commissioner Rollins has written to a resident of Lexington, Va., saying his want of authority to allow the applicant to distil fifteen or twenty gallons of apple brandy from his own orchard for his own use.

The above, taken from an exchange paper, is a pretty full answer to a late editorial in the "Woman Insulter," which charges the "Conservative officers" with exacting, contrary to law, the enormous four hundred dollar tax on distilleries. It called on our citizens to disregard the official order, and distil their fruits as much as they pleased. It may be, however, that Commissioner Rollins has lately become reconciled to the President, and is now a good Conservative, and that he is the man the "Woman Insulter" struck at. But with the lights before us we fear that any who followed its advice will find themselves in a bad box.—No, the Radical Congress made the law, and the intensely Radical Commissioner Rollins states his want of authority to change it, so as to allow a farmer to distil a few gallons of apple brandy from his own orchard, for his own use.

THE WEST ABLAZE! GREAT MASS MEETING IN ASHEVILLE!

A friend writes us from Asheville, under date of Oct. 2:

"We had a glorious day here yesterday, 10,000 noble mountaineers assembled!—The oldest inhabitant does not remember so large an assembly in these mountains.—Gen. Clingman, Col. W. M. Cocke, Hon. J. L. Bailey and Mr. Wade, from Macon, Geo., addressed the multitude, in splendid efforts. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. It would have made your hearts leap with joy, if you had seen the earnest, quiet and determined attention of that vast crowd.—The people of these mountains are all ablaze with enthusiasm, and I feel confident we shall roll up such a majority, next November, for SEYMOUR and BLAIR, as will astonish the whole State!"

THE National Intelligencer understands that some of the carpet bag Senators and Representatives elect are having the bulk of their public documents sent, not to the States which they misrepresent, but to the homes, in the North, which they in fact claim as their residence, thus virtually confessing the hollowness of their pretensions. It shows that there is some little grace left in them yet, that they are unwilling to outrage further by their presence the constituences upon whom they have squatted to draw the salary and the mileage of a member of Congress. In confirmation of the well known outrage imposed on the South, read the following from a recent speech of Gen. Thomas Ewing, in regard to Arkansas:

"He said he knew the Governor, the two Senators, and the Chief Justice of that State. When the war broke out the Governor was a strong secessionist, and wore the Palmetto badge. One of the Senators was a sutler in our army, and had amassed a large fortune by gouging Union officers and soldiers out of their pay; the other had fled from Kentucky, in 1861, after embezzling $5,000 belonging to a client; while the Chief Justice went to Arkansas from Kansas, deserting his wife and three children, and marrying a woman down there. These were specimens of the officers that were furnished the people of Arkansas under the rule of the Radical system."

MR. STANBERY'S SPEECH.—We hope that none of our readers will fail to read all of this noble vindication of the Constitution, the publication of which we conclude today. It is the great speech of the campaign, on the subject of Radical reconstruction.

THE very day of the assembling of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention in Philadelphia, the Telegraph, a Radical paper, announced that there was great danger of losing that city. If the Radicals lose Philadelphia they will lose the State of Pennsylvania.

THE ISSUES OF THE CANVASS.

GREAT SPEECH OF EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL STANBERY, AT LANCASTER, OHIO, ON SEPTEMBER 26.

A Cogent and Conclusive Commentary on Radical Rule,

&c., &c., &c.

(Concluded.)

MILITARY RECONSTRUCTION ACTS.

With the failure of this amendment the constitutional way was abandoned, and then at last, in the spring of 1867, the Republican Congress, called the Thirty-ninth, in the last days of its last session, found a new way outside the Constitution, and passed over the veto of the President the first of the series of acts known as the Military Reconstruction acts. The first section declared that no legal State governments existed in ten of the Southern States, and, to secure to them the blessings of a legal government, the first step taken was to place them under a military despotism.—They were divided into five military districts. Five military commanders, with a sufficient force to compel their obedience, were set over them. They were subjected to martial law, to trial by military commissions, denied the habeas corpus, the privilege of bail, the trial by jury. Out of this terrible condition those white American citizens were left but one hope of escape, and that was so to amend their Constitutions as to disfranchise thousands of their fellow-citizens, and to grant universal suffrage to the blacks. The provisions of the Reconstruction acts were so cunningly arranged in fixing the qualification of voters for framing and adopting the proposed Constitutions as to secure not only black suffrage, but black supremacy. Fellow-citizens, one false step generally leads to others; one violation of the Constitution begets many—and so it has been in this instance. There were obstructions in carrying out these reconstruction laws. The executive was opposed to them, and declared them unconstitutional. Straightway they set about to deprive the President of his constitutional power. They sought to deprive him of his constitutional power as Commander in chief of the army by enacting that if he sent an order to a military commander except through his subordinate, the General of the army, he should be punished by imprisonment for a term not to exceed twenty years, and be deemed guilty of an impeachable offence; and if he attempted to exercise his independent constitutional power of removal of Federal officers, he should be punished by both fine and imprisonment, and be impeachable for a high misdemeanor; and, finally, they endeavored to remove him from office by impeachment, and to seize the executive power by placing one of their most reliable and violent partisans in his place. The other department of the Government, the Federal Judiciary, was also an obstruction. The Supreme Court had pronounced military commissions, in time of peace, unconstitutional.—The Republican Congress saw that the same question would arise under their reconstruction acts. The same question did in fact arise, and had been taken by appeal according to law, to that Court, and was there pending, argued, and ready for decision. They more than dreaded the decision—for they were well satisfied it would declare their legislation unconstitutional. Thereupon they repealed the law giving the Supreme Court jurisdiction over the case. Thus, step by step, the Republican Congress arrogated to itself powers not conferred by the Constitution, subject or frustrated the authority of the co-ordinate departments—and overthrew the barriers which defend the rights of the States. Fellow citizens, this was the work of the extreme Radicals of the Republican party, who led or forced the moderate men of their party into their support. And, what was the purpose? To restore the Union and preserve the just rights of the States? No, fellow-citizens. It was to perpetuate the ascendancy of their party, by incorporating the black race as a political element in our system. Their purpose was to make them a part of the governing element in Federal affairs, and as far as possible the superior governing element in State affairs at the South. Their purpose was to do something more than make the negro a voter. It was to make him a Republican voter, and through his agency to make every one of these States a Republican State. The true sense in which they guarantee to these States a republican government is to make them members of the Republican party.—Now, fellow-citizens, for the proof of this operation. Read over the Republican legislation since the close of the war, relating to the Southern States,—the Freedmen's Bureau act, the Civil Rights act, and the three Reconstruction acts. If these white legislators had all been blacks, I do not see how, so far as the South is concerned, more partiality could have been shown to the blacks, or more hostility to the whites. They first insure the fealty of the blacks to their party by lavish appropriations of the public money for their education and support. They next declare that they are citizens of the United States, and give them at once a political position superior to our unnaturalized emigrants. They give them privileges that no Congress ever attempted to confer on the white race by constituting tribunals for their special benefit, extending over subjects wholly domestic and local, and yet independent of all State control or regulation, and finally, when the blacks have been fully educated and indoctrinated in the Republican faith, and are ready to vote the Republican ticket, they force negro suffrage upon the South at the point of the bayonet. When this is accomplished, Radical Reconstruction has done its perfect work, and these Southern States are declared entitled to representation in Congress by showing a Republican ticket of admission at the doors. In this way seven of the Southern States have been reconstructed, and the others, as they claim, will soon follow. What next? Peace is to follow. "Let us have peace," says General Grant. He means peace accomplished by Republican reconstruction. Fellow-citizens, we shall never have peace or the blessings of peace through that agency. Radical reconstruction bears no such fruits. As well expect to gather grapes from thorns. Look at Tennessee, which has been reconstructed upon the Radical basis of negro suffrage and white disfranchisement for more than two years. Look at that State and tell me whether peace reigns there. When the rebellion was put down the highest order of statesmanship was required to re-adjust our political system. Wisdom and calm deliberation were required. It was no party work that was to be done. Now what have we seen? Everything done in the interests of the Republican party, and not of the nation. Laws passed in violation of the Constitution, under the dictation of a caucus and the lash of a party leader to secure party supremacy. Fellow-citizens, I have made up my mind to oppose these revolutionary measures, and as such opposition can only be carried out by concerted action and organization, I find myself side by side with my old political antagonists. Wherever, in our political contests, I find one party systematically engaged in violating our Constitution, and another battling for its preservation, I have no doubt, no hesitation as to my choice. When it comes to that, former political ties and associations do not draw me. They are as ropes of sand. Our precious Constitution is my standard of political action. Show me a party which carries out its measures regardless of the sacred provisions of the Constitution, or in the language of its leader, "outside of the Constitution," and I will shun its companionship, though all my former political associates were in its ranks. Show me a party faithful to the Constitution, and in its ranks, though composed exclusively of former antagonists, my place and portion will be found. "Measure, not men," is the rule for me. It is the present and the future, not the past, that decides the matter. I do not ask my Democratic brother, who now fights by my side in the cause of the Constitution, whether in former contests, and upon issues which have passed away, we were agreed. The supreme wisdom lies in the living issues of to-day. The question with me is not whether a party was wrong once, but whether it is right now. And now, my friends, I have given you the main reasons why I stand here to-day—yes, here, in my old county, where, for a quarter of a century, I stood opposed to the Democracy, here in the midst of old political associates and well beloved friends—why I stand here upon a Democratic platform. I stand here to support the Constitution, to support the first rights of the States, to sustain civil law and civil governments against martial law and military rule, to defend the all-essential rights of American citizens, to preserve the guarantees which make us a free people, to defend the habeas corpus, the trial by jury, the right of the white people of the States to frame their own constitutions for themselves. I stand here to defend the ancient Commonwealth of Virginia against the imposition of negro suffrage upon the unwilling white people, as I would stand here to defend the white people of Ohio from a similar outrage.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

Hitherto, fellow-citizens, I have put the case upon constitutional grounds. I have arraigned the measures and the policy of the Republican party as subversive of our fundamental law. Now let us look at their measures and their policy from another point of view. Is it not constitutional, are they, at least, wise and right in themselves? Is universal negro suffrage a good thing in itself—so good that it must be established per fas aut nefas, or right or by wrong? Is it so supreme a right that to deny it is anti-republican? People of Ohio, of all political parties! I need not wait for your answer. You gave it last fall in tones of thunder. You then said this is a white man's Government, and you rejected this good thing with loathing and abhorrence. Mark it, my friends, that the question put to the people of Ohio was negro suffrage alone. What would have been your answer if the thing proposed was to give the ballot to the negro with one hand, and take it from the white man with the other?—What would you have said if the proposition made to you was intended, not to make negro suffrage a harmless element in the regulation of your political affairs, as it would be in Ohio, but to make it the controlling element? Look at the reconstructed State of South Carolina, and what do you see? All its white people subjected to the domination of the black race. There are those who say, "This is well; this is retributive justice; this is the legitimate fruit of unsuccessful rebellion; this is security for the future; this is the restoration promised; this is peace." Fellow citizens, it is neither restoration nor peace. It portends a conflict. There is no security in it either for the black race or the white, and least of all for the blacks. All history teaches us that where these two races of men exist together the white race must rule. No human laws can work out the problem of their social equality, or political equality; but human laws may place them in hostility to each other; human laws may array one class against the other, and place the negro on a level with, or above, the white man, but nothing short of the bayonet can keep him there. When the eleven Southern States attempted to secede from the Union, when the eight millions of their white people, with such remarkable unanimity, took that fatal step, it was under the idea that they were exercising a constitutional right. They had been educated in that faith. We, of the North, had been taught in another school. The right had been affirmed and denied from the foundation of our Government. It was one of those political question which nothing but arms could decide, and which, at last, arms did decide. Now, my friends, one and all, I put this questions to you, especially to such of you as maintain that these Southern people are the greatest of criminals, and deserve no mercy; I ask you to put your hands on your hearts and tell me whether, if you had been born under a Southern sun, and had lived all your lives in a Southern State, and been taught from your infancy that secession was a constitutional right, if you would not have gone with your people into secession? Do not misunderstand me. As a Northern man, taught by Webster and Clay, not by Calhoun and Davis, I denied the right of secession, and while the war raged I was in favor of fighting it out for the preservation of the Union. While these Southern people had arms in their hands, I looked upon them as public enemies; but when the rebellion was put down—when these misguided people gave up the contest, and with it gave up all the issues of the contest—then to me it seemed the part of wisdom to receive them back into the old fold. That was Mr. Lincoln's policy—that has been Mr. Johnson's and under its healthful influence conquered twice—first, by our arms, and next by our clemency—they did all that men could do to repair and make amends for the past. Fellow-citizens, you know what followed. You know how they have been treated, and in what spirit a Republican Congress met their overtures of friendship and reconciliation. They asked for bread and were given a stone. Their Constitutions, framed upon our Constitutional model, and according to all its requirements, were declared illegal, and in the name of legality they were put under a military despotism, only to be superseded by negro domination. Do you wonder that at this moment there is no true peace in the South? Do you know so little of human nature, and especially of human nature in its American type, as to delude yourselves with the idea that this was the right way? Could you expect any other results than those which have followed? Are you surprised to hear that in the reconstructed States there are collisions between the two races, and calls for more arms and more soldiers, especially in that State which has been longest reconstructed? Make the Freedmen's Bureau a permanent establishment, turn the whole South into a military camp, increase your army and establish a military post in every precinct of the South, and you may have peace, but it will be the peace of despotism. When General Grant accepts the nomination and the platform of the Republican party, he stands pledged to carry out their policy. When he says, "let us have peace," he means the sort of peace which the triumph of Republican reconstruction is to effect. He pledges himself to stand by negro suffrage imposed upon the South by the Republican party, and to fight it out on that line. I have nothing to say against General Grant as a soldier. He was educated as a soldier, and has shown great capacity as a military man. He has been honored by a grateful people, and those honors were fairly won and well deserved. But when he enters the arena of politics, and accepts the leadership of a party, I must look to the party, and not its standard-bearer—to the measures of that party, and not the man. Fellow-citizens, there is a class of persons who admit that Republican reconstruction is all unconstitutional; who desire to see it reformed, but do not see how it can be done. They have an indefinable dread of the Democratic party, and fear to trust it with power. Why, my friends, this same Democratic party has governed the Republic more than three-fourths of the period of our existence as a nation. When, in all its history, was it guilty of such infractions of the Constitution as this Republican party has committed during the short term of its existence? Need I answer the infamous charge, made by leading Republicans, that this old party is made up of rebels and rebel sympathizers, that it brought on the war and left the Republican party to fight it out? Grant was a Democrat, and so was Sherman, and of the rank and file of our armies, how many Democrats gave their lives that the nation might live, and how many still survive true to their old Democratic faith?

THE REMEDY.

And now as to the question, how can the Democratic Conservative party apply a remedy? There are some who say that the evil is incurable; that right or wrong, the black race of the South have been invested with the right of suffrage, and it cannot be taken from them—that right or wrong the Southern States have been reconstructed and recognized by Congress, and in virtue of that recognition their status is irreversibly fixed. Listen a moment, my doubting friend—if a Republican Congress could disfranchise the white man, cannot a Democratic Congress disfranchise the negro? If a Republican Congress can take the ballot from the white man and give it to the negro, cannot a Democratic Congress restore it to its former rightful owners? If a Republican Congress could declare a State Constitution void when made by the white men of a State in the exercise of their free will, cannot a Democratic Congress declare a State Constitution void made by the black men of a State with the help of the bayonet? Finally, if a Congressional recognition is the test of State legality, can not a Democratic Congress apply it as well as a Republican Congress? All we have to do is to reverse what has been done, and undo by constitutional means what has been done by revolutionary means. First of all, elect a President who will fight it out on the line of the Constitution, instead of on the line of Republicanism. Next, elect a Democratic House of Representatives.—Half the work is then done, for not a Representative from any one of these reconstructed States will be recognized by or allowed to take his seat in that body, and not another dollar will be appropriated to sustain the Freedmen's Bureau or the military occupation of the South. Finally, put a Democratic majority in the Senate, and then the good work will be finished. It will take time—perhaps more time to correct all this mischief than it has taken to commit it. The process may be a slow one, but, my Democratic friends, if you are of the same class of men as of old—if you possess the same steadfast and unconquerable will—sooner or later success is sure. Then the primal glories of the Republic will come back; then the lost will be found. Then these Southern people, purified by a great moral reform, released forever from slavery and all its attendant evils, conquered more effectually by our clemency than by our arms, will stand again once more by the old flag. Then, indeed, the star of peace will return. No more domestic strife—no more rebellion. Then no more shall the Northern and Southern soldier confront each other in opposing ranks, but shoulder, to shoulder, in an unconquerable column, where the fiery valor of the Southern shall be united with the heroic courage of the Northern soldier, they may defy the world in arms.

MARRIED:

In Mecklenburg County, on the 29th ult., by the Rev. Mr. Andrews, R. D. WHITLEY, Esq., to Miss MARTHA MOODY.

DIED:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,793.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

I am, respectfully,

HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15 273	$5.000

See 12th. Quarterly Statement of the Raleigh National Bank of North Carolina: The exhibit which it makes is flattering to the energy and efficiency with which the affairs of the Institution are managed.

W. E. Anderson, Cashier, makes Quarterly Statement of the State National Bank of Raleigh. This first exhibit speaks highly for the financial ability with which this new Bank is conducted.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of a visit, on yesterday, from our friend, M. J. McSween, Esq., of the Fayetteville Eagle We are gratified to learn that his valuable paper is flourishing.

WE RETURN our thanks to Mr. Jerome Thompson for an invitation to a private view of his new painting, "Home, Sweet Home," companion picture to "The Old Oaken Bucket," at the parlors of the Fifth Avenue Art Gallery, corner Fourteenth street, New York, on the evening of October 9th.

RADICALISM AT DURHAM'S.—The Radicals had a pow-wow at Durham's on Saturday last. Every effort was made to get a large crowd, in order to offset the effect of the recent Democratic demonstrations at that place. Only about forty or fifty negroes were present,—no white men, except a few from the village, who attended out of curiosity. Two negroes from Raleigh (Jim Jones and Booker) spoke and made decent speeches, compared with a most infamous and degraded harangue which followed from Calvin Rogers. Our informant writes: "He spoke within hearing of several respectable families, in their houses, and used language that no gentleman would permit to escape his lips."

THE HENDERSON FAIR.—We make our acknowledgments to W. W. Young, Esq., Chairman of the Executive Committee, for an invitation to be present at the Central Agricultural Fair to be held at Henderson, on the 14th., 15th. and 16th. On Thursday, the 15th., the annual address will be delivered by Henry K. Nash, Esq., and a rich treat may be expected. The occasion throughout will, doubtless, be a most interesting and enjoyable one.

HURRAH FOR ROGERS!—We observe Rogers badges being worn by a number of good Democrats and Conservatives. They have been gotten up on the same plan as other campaign badges, and enclose a capital miniature photograph of our candidate for Congress.

THE RADICAL Torchlight Procession in Newbern on Saturday night was a perfect fizzle. By actual count, there were only 28 torches and 80 persons in the procession.—At least 20 of the latter were boys. Scalawags Bragden and Clarke and the West India negro O'Hara were the speakers.

THE CAMPAIGN IN RALEIGH.—The rally of the Seymour and Blair men of the City, at the Court House, on Monday night, to which we briefly alluded on yesterday, was a glorious occasion. Better and more stirring speeches and greater enthusiasm we have rarely heard or witnessed. Gov. Bragg was able, logical and convincing, as he always is. Col. Jenkins' effort was equal, as an effective campaign speech, to the best of the canvass anywhere; and our young friend, Mr. F. H. Busbee, acquitted himself in a highly creditable manner, giving promise of future distinction as a public speaker.

Last night, the negroes, with the usual corporal's squad of whites, had a meeting in the Court House. They were addressed, we learn, by the Rev. G. W. Pepper, Chaplain of the 40th. U. S. (Colored) Infantry. Mr. Pepper is a man of education, but how he succeeds as a political speaker, we do not know. We believe that this is the first instance, however, in which an officer of the United States Army has made a partizan harangue in our midst.

We understand that Deweese ranted, McDonald cut divers silly antics, Whitson served up the usual savory dish of "coilards," and Galloway, negro, who seems to have taken up his residence here, indulged in an inflammatory and violent tirade.

THE RADICAL CANDIDATE IN THE SEVENTH DISTRICT.—We stated, in an Editorial, a few days since, our impression that W. S. Pearson, the Radical candidate for Elector in the Seventh District, was under 22 years of age. We learn that he is not only under 22 years of age, but barely 19,—certainly but little over. He is a mere boy, and not eligible as an Elector. About six weeks before the late Commencement at the University, at the "Senior Festival," he delivered an oration upon Daniel Webster, wherein he spoke with regret of the good old times, "when we did have a country." The undue notice taken of his oration at Commencement has given the young man an altogether factitious prominence.

BACKED DOWN.—Deweese worked his wind-mill in Warrenton, the other day.—Col. Jenkins gave him a fair opportunity for discussion, but Deweese inglorious'y "knocked under." Here is Col. Jenkins' note, the liberal proposition in which was declined. Deweese also refuses to meet Col. Rogers on the stump.

WARRENTON, Sept. 30, 1868.

Jno. T. Deweese, Esq:

DEAR SIR:—As the issues involved in the pending elections are of vital importance to the people, they are desirous of hearing both sides discussed. I therefore propose to divide the time with you. I am perfectly willing that you should have both the opening and conclusion in the discussion. Please give me an answer in writing to this proposition. Very respectfully,

Your obt. servant.

W. A. JENKINS.

THE CANVASS—NORTHERN ITEMS.

The results of the vote in Vermont and Maine, and the large amount of money expended by the bond holders on the Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana canvass, have had a somewhat depressing effect upon some friends of Seymour and Blair. As the official returns from Maine, however, become better known, and the canvass progresses, we observe a marked increasing confidence in the success of the Democracy. We compile the following items from our last exchanges.

PENNSYLVANIA.

At Reading, Pa., Senator Doolittle addressed a large meeting on the 1st. A telegram says, "we can count converts to Democracy by scores, and fully one-half of the people, addressed by Mr. Doolittle, were Republicans up to a few months since."

On the same day, Mayor Hoffman, of New York, and Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, addressed 10,000 people. Mr. Hoffman said that he once felt doubts as to Pennsylvania, but since he crossed the borders of the State, he was assured it would go Democratic by an immense majority.

At Easton, there was an immense demonstration on the 30th. The Democratic procession was two miles in length. The telegram says, the Democrats are satisfied that they will carry the State by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

The crowd at Pittsburg, to hear Gen. Blair, is said to have exceeded anything before known in that city.

OHIO.

A correspondent of the New York World, writing from Cleaveland, says: "The canvass in Ohio is now at fever heat, so to speak. Both parties are doing their level best to secure the floating vote, and to carry the doubtful Congressional districts in October. The Democrats have left no stone unturned, and, unless the grossest frauds are perpetrated upon the people, have no fear of the result. All I hear is significant of a great triumph in October; so look out for good news from the Buckeye State."

The New York World, of the 3d. instant, says:

"Mr. S. M. McCord, of Springfield, Ohio, called at the World office, and two days ago, in conversation with General George M. Morgan, was informed by the latter that in his opinion (and a most judicious observer is the General) Ohio was certain to go Democratic on the 13th., by a decided majority; that the majority will be greatly increased in November; that Indiana indicates the same way. Mr. McCord feels assured of the defeat of Ashley, Schenck, Bingham, and of the obscure Radical running in Mr. Shellabarger's district; in fact, that out of nineteen Congressmen the Democracy will elect fifteen."

A Dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, says: "Republicans in the Third District are beginning to consider that Vallandigham will beat Schenck."

OTHER STATES.

From Indiana, Missouri, Wisconsin and Western Virginia the accounts are cheering. The election of Gov. Hendricks, in Indiana, is claimed with confidence.

An exchange says: "The Radicals give up Missouri. The Registers swear everybody who take the oath, and the Democrats register more votes this year than ever before. The Radicals are incensed because the Registers do their duty. The Hannibal Courier (Radical) gives up the State "to the Democrats by 20,000."

The National Intelligencer, of the 1st. inst., speaking of Gen. Blair, says: "General Blair spent yesterday at Silver Spring, on a visit to his parents, and passed through this city last evening on his way to Bedford, Penn., where he speaks to-day. General Blair is fresh from the canvass in Ohio, Indiana, and Pennsylvania, of which he gives the most gratifying accounts. The enthusiasm, energy and determination of the Democracy are aroused to the very highest pitch, while their opponents, conscious, many of them, in their hearts, that the policy of their Congress has been harsh, cruel, and violent, have little heart in a cause which proposes to continue this policy. From these and other reasons General Blair entertains the strongest confidence of a brilliant victory for the Conservatives. The General looks well, and will probably continue to addr ss the people during the remainder of the canvass."

THE SUMAC TRADE.—There is scarcely anything that is so valuable, to be found in North Carolina, which grows more abundantly and spontaneously, than the Sumac. It can be obtained almost anywhere, on old lands, in the locks of the fences, and on hedge rows, just for the gathering.

The leaves of Sumac enter largely into trade, and it is growing. This is the season for gathering the leaves. The American Sumac contains a larger amount of tannin than any other, which is the source of its value. Whether the berries are valuable, we are not now prepared to say. If they are as valuable as the leaves, they can be obtained in large quantities. The leaves sell in Liverpool at about $75 per ton.

An unknown friend has called our attention to this subject. If he is in possession of any facts, which will be valuable to our people, on the subject of the Sumac, we shall be obliged to him for the information.

THE MASS meeting at Salisbury, to-morrow, will be a most imposing affair. We hope that some friend will furnish us an account of it.

ONE of the largest Mass Meetings of the campaign is to be held at Newton, on Friday, Oct. 30th.

GRAND Mass Meeting and Barbecue at Statesville, on Thursday, Oct. 29th.

THE SOLDIERS IN PHILADELPHIA.—The National Intelligencer says that the Philadelphia demonstration has been simply what is vulgarly called a "fizzle." It would seem so. The small number of letters received from military men was not at all encouraging to the Radicals. Peirpoint was one of the speakers.

HERE'S YOUR FREEDOM!—A correspondent of the New York Herald, writing from Nashville, Tenn., gives an account of a recent Radical celebration in that city. He says:

"There were in the procession fully one thousand colored men, nearly every one of whom had been so plentifully supplied with whiskey that he could hardly tell which was the lighted end of his torch. They marched by twos through the principal streets, and amused themselves by yelling and screeching as though every man's existence depended upon the result. Wherever a colored man was met who was known to be adverse to the Radicals, and who was unfortunate enough to be without friendly protection, he was at once pelted with burnt-out torches and made to fly for his very life. They seized upon one colored man whom they met in Vine Street, on horseback, and on the mere supposition that he was a Conservative, threw torches in his face and placed several under the horse, all the time endeavoring to pull him from his seat, probably to execute the threat that was made by many of their number, who cried out to 'hang the d—d rebel.'"

GALLOWAY, the negro candidate for Elector on the Radical ticket, for whom the white men of the West are called upon to vote, made a speech in Warrenton the other day. The Courier says:

"He used every means to incite and inflame the crowd present against the white race, by abuse, invective, false statements and perversion of facts. In the midst of his denunciation of all colored democrats, one amongst the audience acknowledged that he intended to vote for and use all his influence for Seymour and Blair. At this acknowledgement, a large portion of the colored set upon him with cries of 'kill him,' and various other threats against Democracy and the white race, pursuing the negro with blows to the Central Hotel, where the pursuit partially ceased, but large numbers crossed over, and continued their advance on the little crowd of Conservatives which gathered in their defence, and expressed their determination to die in the cause rather than suffer imposition. At this juncture, when blood was high in the hearts of the white and colored Conservatives, the crowd of negroes, under the entreaties of some of their leaders, went back to their places and quiet was once more restored."

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN CHARLOTTE.

The Seymour and Blair Club of this city met at Oates Hall, on the evening of the 2d. October, when,

On motion, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted;

WHEREAS, An article recently appeared in the Raleigh Standard, the organ of the Radical party in this State, supposed to be edited or inspired, in part, by W. W. Holden, acting Governor, and W. M. Coleman, Attorney General, making a wholesale charge of impurity, corruption and prostitution in the grossest and most obscene language against the women of North Carolina. Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Seymour and Blair Club of Charlotte, That we denounce the said charge as false and monstrous beyond anything known in the history of infamy. That it is a disgrace to civilization, an outrage upon the common decencies of life, a slander so foul, comprehensive and unbushing that it shocks the moral sense of every decent man, white or black, wherever it may be known.

Resolved, 2d. That we execrate and despise its authors, sympathisers and tolerators as wretches too vile and abandoned to be worthy the association of any man or woman who respects the amenities of life or the refinements of civilization; and we therefore earnestly urge upon our noble countrymen to refuse their society and association, not only as to the authors of this slander, who never had admission into decent circles in this State, but to all who approve or sustain with their patronage, countenance or support, this vile sheet which emits such damning libels upon their purity and fair fame; holding, as we do, that those who sustain and defend a black guard and a liar, are responsible for his words and acts.

Resolved, further, That we recommend the decent citizens of North Carolina, of whatever party or color, to denounce such conduct, by indignation meetings or otherwise.

The meeting of the Club was stimulated by speeches from Gov. Z. B. Vance, Col. H. C. Jones, and Col. E. A. Osborne.

On motion of Wm Boyd, Esq., it was resolved that the Raleigh Sentinel and the Charlotte city papers be furnished by the Secretary of this Club with the proceedings of this meeting, and every paper in the State approving the resolutions to copy.

For the Sentinel,

Boon Hill All Right!

BOON HILL, JOHNSTON CO., Sept. 29.

On Saturday evening last, 26th inst., according to previous announcement, quite a number of the citizens of Boon Hill District assembled at Boon Hill, Johnston county, for the purpose of hearing an address from Dr. Roscoe Hooker, on the issues of the day, and to organize a Seymour and Blair Club.

Dr. Hay, who has assumed to be one of the leaders of Radicalism in this District, for some time past, hearing of the appointment, and becoming uneasy as to the results, came up to look after the interest of his party.

Dr. Hooker had not proceeded far in his address, before (being continually and unceremoniously interrupted by Dr. Hay, he changed his original plan, and entered into a regular "pitched battle" or discussion with Dr. Hay, which, it is needless to say, resulted in Hay and his party, and their principles, being "worn out to a frazzle." It was the general opinion that Hay had "caught a Tartar," and that he would return to Goldsboro "a sadder but a wiser man."

It was very evident, that much good was done for the cause of Democracy, and our afflicted country. This District, it is almost confidently believed, by those who are competent to judge, will be all right in the coming Presidential election.

At the close of the discussion, a Seymour and Blair Club was organized, of which Dr. Hooker was chosen President.

Yours, &c.,

SPECTATOR.

THE BEST REBUKE.—The people, irrespective of party, are holding indignation meetings all over the State, to rebuke the infamous attack of the Standard upon the women of the State, which appeared recently in that sheet. The best way to rebuke the insult will be, on the 3rd. of November, for all the men of the State to vote for Seymour and Blair. Rebuke the party—rebuke the Head! The tail is a small matter.—Statesville American.

THE GRANDEST Political Demonstration of THE AGE!

GEN. McCLELLAN SPEAKS.

HALF A MILLION PEOPLE PRESENT!!

NEW YORK, Oct 6, M.

The meeting, last night, was the greatest ever held in this City. An experienced Police Captain estimated that there were NINETY THOUSAND persons in the torch light procession, which when joined by delegations from the adjoining counties extended ten miles.

The scene in Union Square was grand. The main stand represented the "Temple of Liberty," and was brilliantly illuminated by strings of lights, which stretched to Tammany Hall. The streets in the vicinity seemed literally on fire with calcium lights, rockets, fire paintings and balloons. The main stand facing Broadway was the centre of attraction, outside of Tammany Hall, although there were six other stands, at which speeches were made to an immense throng, roughly estimated at HALF A MILLION of men, women and children. The crowd stretched compactly down Broadway to Eleventh streets, while the cross streets were alive with citizens.

Gen. Baldy Smith was President. He said: "He represented hundreds of thousands of soldiers, who thought that the results of the war would be lost, without an entire change of policy."

A letter from Gen. McClellan was read, emphatically endorsing the Democratic candidates.

ASSURANCES OF DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS IN PENNSYLVANIA AND OHIO.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5, P. M.

Hon. Montgomery Blair has just returned here from an extended trip to Pennsylvania and Ohio, and expresses the most sanguine expectations of an overwhelming Democratic victory in those States in the October elections.

A letter just received from Gen. Tom Ewing, from Columbus, Ohio, expresses the opinion that the Democrats will carry that State.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6, P. M.

Mr. Seward recognizes, and will continue to recognize, the present representative of Spain, until Spain names a successor.

Sibley telegraphs from Atlanta that the Camilla report will be mailed to-morrow. Many parties proclaim that there has been jugging.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Oct. 6, P. M.

To-day, as forty negro penitentiary convicts, hired out to work on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, were going on the Central Railroad to Covington, they overpowered the guard, four miles beyond Gordonsville, and twenty-four leaped off, while the train was going full speed. Two were instantly killed by the leap, and three mortally wounded. The rest of those who leaped off escaped.

Hon. Jno. Quincy Adams, of Massachusetts, arrived here to-day, on his way to Georgia, to address the people.

LET US HAVE PEACE!—ARMING NEGROES.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 6, P. M.

Four thousand stands of arms have arrived here, consigned to Little Rock. It is supposed that they are to arm the negroes. No Steamboat would take them as freight to Little Rock, on any terms.

FROM GEORGIA—THE LEGISLATURE ADJOURNED.

ATLANTA, Oct. 6, P. M.

The House Committee to examine into the eligibility of Beard, Bolpher and Davis, reported that they, after full investigation, found Beard to have in his veins more than one eighth of negro blood. The report was adopted; whereupon a resolution was offered, that Beard be declared ineligible to a seat,—which was adopted.

After passing bills of local interest only, the General Assembly adjourned. The Speaker of the House said:

"We met as strangers personally,—politically, our feelings were fully embittered by the extraordinary teachings of those who should have known better. We separate to-day, almost as one people in sentiment and common interest. Listen not to the teachings of political slander. This is our Government. Let us correct evils that may exist, by appealing to intelligence and wisdom of the nation, not to passions of the mob. Let our motto be: Wisdom, Justice and Moderation—and all will be well."

The Assembly will reassemble in January. The members separate with fraternal feelings towards each other.

Good News from the Mountains!

LENOIR, N. C., Oct. 2, 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—To-day we had splendid efforts from Capt. Durham and Co', McAfee. They held the large crowd almost spell-bound for four hours.

Col. McAfee is winning golden opinions as Elector in this District. His expose of the extravagance of the Radical party is a complete success. At the conclusion of his speech, a citizen remarked: "Great God! this miserable party is much worse than I thought it was!"

Capt. Plato Durham is too well known to require commendation from your correspondent. He is making a bold, vigorous and effective canvass. His opponent, A. H. Jones, refuses to "face the music" in open debate, but scouts in the rear, and, I am told, follows the Radical policy of working on its miserable dupes in the dark, and in the secluded corners of the county, far from the lights afforded by reading and discussion.

We feel confident of the election of Durham in this District. We will gain largely in Caldwell County.

Our people are active and zealous. Push on the good work! Yours, M.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1868.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That so much of this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the publication of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

P. F. WILLIAMSON,
Raleigh, Oct. 1-tf No. 4 Exchange Place,

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering); and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation as will, under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the vindication of the honor of our countrymen, naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledges of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the preservation of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has persistently violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal; and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burdens of the debt we inherited by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do decree and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the province and trust of self-government has belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it should be instantly resisted by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that, we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a tyrant gallant and determined foe must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given to that faithful band must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It pulters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the fallacy of revolution and war, threatening them as the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the elders of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings as well as the burdens of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

NEW YORK.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,734, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.
